

BURGUNDY ON A BUDGET

Once thought of as the realm of the richest, Burgundy can offer great value for money. Here, our experts pick their top names for consistent quality, up to premier cru level.

February 2006

'Producers have upped their game, looking to provide consumers with wines that are good to drink at prices they want to pay'

EXPERTS SELECTED ONE OF TOP 20 BURGUNDY ADDRESSES

16= Alex Gambal

GAMBAL IS A 40-something Bostonian who came to Burgundy to work for Becky Westerman in 1993 and set up on his own in 1998. Apart from the grands crus, his purchases are mainly of fruit. Fabrice Larouse is the winemaker.

■ 'The wines of enthusiastic Alex seem to get better every year, thereby proving what we all thought impossible: that a keen Anglophone outsider can make headway in Burgundy.' AJ D